Memories

Welcome to the 1995 Yearbook, "Memories of Marian." Begin this journey with a thought written by Joseph Fort Newton. "Every man has a train of thought on which he rides . . . The Dignity and nobility of his life, as well as his happiness depend upon the direction in which that train is going, the baggage it carries, and the scenery through which it travels." As you look back through the scenery through which you have traveled, may your "Memories of Marian" cast a little light on who you are today. Have a pleasant journey.

Tennis Ball

This year the semiformal dance, known as the tennis ball because of its sponsorship by the tennis team, was postponed from December 17 to January 6. It was held at the Greek Orthodox Church on North Ironwood Road. A large turnout of people dressed to perfection demonstrated the time and energy that went into preparation for the dance. Clearly the students were not camera-shy judging by the number of pictures taken at the dance. A special thanks to all who helped make the evening possible.

Two groups demonstrate the number of friends they have by squeezing together for a group picture.

Sorin Mihalache and his date pause for a moment to give the camera a look.

Kat Walker and Andrew Knopick support the cause with their presence.

Lisa Wallace graces her date's lap with her presence while Pat Szuba looks on with what appears to be disbelief.

Nicole Bossung and Debbie Yoder share their stories of an evening well spent.

Patricia Garcia and Dave Henthorn relax after a whirl on the dance floor.

The dancing gets wild and crazy as the evening rolls on.

Sara Brady is obviously surprised at something Courtney Felabom has said.

"Blithe's Spirit"

Drama's fall comedy this year was entitled "Blithe's Spirit." It is the story of a middle-aged author who is writing a book on spirits in the after life. As part of the research for his book, he invites a medium to work her magic in a seance which calls the spirit of his dead wife. Then the mayhem begins. This year's cast was well supported by a host of people who made the play from the director to the stage crew. These people made the difficulty of learning the lines a little easier, or harder, depending on which rehearsal you saw. A special thanks goes to all the supporters of Marian Drama.

Home-coming

The 1994 Football Homecoming week was one full of memories. It was packed with events which included Theme Days, Hall Decorating, and, of course, one of the infamous Marian Pep Rallies. The knights had fun dressing up on days like Favorite Sport Day, Disco Day, Class Color Day, Backward/Inside-out Day, and who could forget . . . Clash Day!

The football game was also eventful as we saw Liane Slavinkas and Jacob Mathis get crowned Homecoming King and Queen. Even though we lost the football game, the Homecoming dance was a big hit. All who attended boogied and danced the night away. Homecoming '94 will never be forgotten.

The Auction

The St. Joe/Marian Auction is the highlight of the Marian fundraising activities, and it takes all of the efforts of the faculty, students, and families to make it happen. Among some of the items that are auctioned off are dinners with Lou Holtz, trips to far away and dreamy places, and even hot air balloon rides. With all of the effort that goes into the auction, it has become one of the irreplaceable sources of revenue for Marian. Congratulations and thank you to all who keep the auction alive.

Three members of the Auction Steering Committee rest their weary feet after the auction while the rest make plans to steal their chairs.

Annette Snyder signals the nearest bidder with her battery powered pointer.

A host of Marian students take a bow for their part in the auction.

Grace Blum, Mary Woodka, Amy Diroll, and Lauren Shields display the highly sought-after prizes of the auction.

Spirit Week

As usual, spirit week was filled with a little bit of variety and a lot of craziness. Along with all of the celebrations, there was a disco day and a class color day on which Mr.

Gerstbauer played the "Freshman Blues" on his harmonica in the hallway. The week peaked with thundering win over the John Glenn Falcons. Way to go Knights!

The members of 1995's Spirit Court give the camera their best on Marian's lobby steps.

Joe Schultz says, "Let me in! I really, really need to get my government books for Mr. Haas's test tomorrow."

Brian Ward, Katie Hutchinson, and Sarah Wrasse try to catch a few minutes of study time before the first bell.

Aaron Richardson, Sheila Lalwani and Adam Hums take their morning classes seriously as they race to see who gets done coloring first.

Christmas Concert

Brooke Eastburn solos for the audience in true performer's style.

The basses and tenors are covered as the group joins their voices together in song.

The Christmas Concert was held on the Sunday after Marian's Open House. The singers graced the audience with traditional and some non-traditional Christmas Carols while stunning the audience with their beautiful gowns and tuxedos. A big thanks to Mrs. Snyder and all of the concert singers.

Mrs. Snyder says to the group, "We make beautiful music together."

"My Favorite Year"

Brendan O'Rourke attracts an audience with his acting ability.

The cast and crew of "My Favorite Year" presented a memorable night for all who attended the spring musical. Special moments included the colorful production number "Manhattan" sung by leads Brad Cronmiller and Jacob Borowski, the humorous characterizations by Brendan O'Rourke, Mandy Nash, Chris Boynton, and Beth Ferlic, and the singing and dancing of lead actresses Kathleen Cochrane and Elizabeth Heaton. First year director Terry Smith included impressive color and lighting designs as well as moving sets and scenery in his direction which added to the musical's overall success. Cherie Smith added vocal direction and choreography.

Theresa Rey gets Stephanie Shaw ready for the big show.

Masks hide the faces of Broadway's future stars.

Steph Shaw, Megan Knopick, Jenny Tricker, Michele Molnar, and Sarah Dance delight the audience with a little dance number.

Prom

Junior/Senior Prom, a time of memories, provides some of the most vivid memories of high school. This year's prom was held at the Mariott Hotel in downtown South Bend. The weather was nice and the decor was exquisite. Many of the teachers and administration attended to watch the gala ball. Mr. O'Rourke was there in person to crown the king and queen of the prom. The regal winners were Billy Turnock and Sara Schoenle.

The after-prom party was held at Chippewa Bowl. Among the activities were gambling and, quite obviously, bowling, as well as other games.

Those were the days!

King and queen, Billy Turnock and Sara Schoenle display their diadems.

Chip Leinen and his date dance the night away.

Erin Trammell has the pleasure of doing one of the readings for the mass.

Commencement

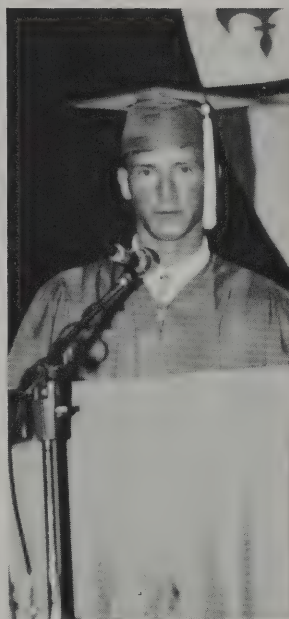

Valedictorian Nicole Ducharme delivers her speech.

Commencement marks the end of an era for seniors. Or as the seniors may say, the end of a prison term. This year's commencement was marked with the honored presence of Governor Evan Bayh as the keynote speaker, but more importantly with the turning of the tassels as the seniors begin the next stage.

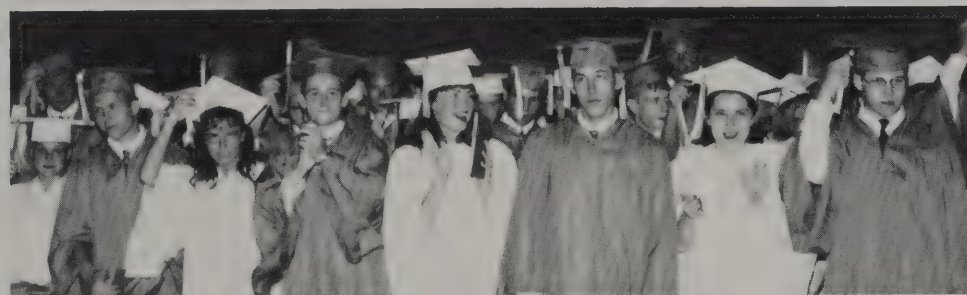

Governor Bayh accepts a gift from the Marian community.

Class President Brian Crowell introduces the evening.

Mr. O'Rourke and Gov. Bayh participate in the pledge of allegiance.

French Club

The 1994-1995 Marian French Club had a great year. While the other foreign language clubs, they raised money for the walk for Hospice. They participated in the open house and the foreign language Christmas party. They saw a French play at Washington High School called "Cyranno". The officers cooked a French dinner for the club members. The club also traveled to Louie's Bon Appetite for a more authentic meal later in the year.

Spanish Club

This year the Spanish Club was led by President Susan Wruble, Vice President Kim Weil, Secretary Patricia Garcia, and Treasurer Heather Boersema.

The year began with our annual taco/movie party in September and our tee-shirt design contest. The Club selected a design submitted by Susan Wruble. In October, members participated in the St. Joseph County walk for Hospice along with members of the other foreign language clubs. Plans for the annual International Christmas Party were also begun.

In November, the club participated in Marian's open house and in December, hosted a successful International Christmas party with the other foreign language clubs.

In the spring, the club purchased two movies in Spanish, "Who Framed Roger Rabbit" and "Sister Act" for the foreign language department. They also enjoyed the Paraguayan diner party given each year by the generous Garcia Family.

The Spanish Club boasts 63 regular members from all four grade levels and is open to all students who are taking or who have taken Spanish in high school.

German Club

Beautiful castles make for a dreamlike atmosphere. All witnessed by the members of the German club.

The year of '94-'95 has been great for the German club. They started off the year with the annual getting to know you picnic where they welcome new members. During homecoming week, they sponsored the flower sale and all the proceeds went toward the Marian book fund for needy students.

Throughout November and early December, certain members of the German club participated in a leaf raking fundraiser. The purpose of the fundraiser was to help students earn their own money for planned trip to Germany over spring vacation; they earned over $1200.00.

The German club still has much planned, although most of it involves the upcoming trip. The students are excited and eager to meet the people and explore a new culture. They have been very busy in preparation for the trip. Now, they are just counting the days until they say, "Aul Wiedershen, Amerika!"

This church is still beautiful despite the scaffolding that climbs its walls.

Art Club

The Marian Art Department has been outstanding this year. It has much more to offer than ever before. With the experience of Mrs. Joan Mathias and Marian's newest inspiration Mr. Rick Melton, the department has grown considerably. The Art Department works hard to decorate our school with many interesting aspects of art that can easily lift the Marian communities spirit. The Art Department not only provides class experience, but also allows students to develop a sense of competitiveness through scholastics and Project XL. Students' work will also be honored in a Marian Fine Arts Festival in conjunction with the May Day celebrations in the spring. From sculpture to painting, design and composition, drawing and crafts, more and more students are becoming interested in joining the fun of expressing themselves.

Head coach Reggie Glon was excited about the many good things that happened this year and looks forward to many great seasons in the future. With over 60 players this year and more to come next year, there will be plenty of players to begin the Knights next football dynasty. Congratulations and thanks to all who participated.

Girl's Soccer

To say that the girls had a great year is the year's great understatement. Having an undefeated regular season is enough to spice up anyone's school year. Perhaps the biggest highlight of the season was Mr. O'Rourke's new haircut, shown below, compliments of the 1994 girl's soccer team.

Sara Schoenle is poised for the throw-in.

Grace Blum proves true to her name as she courses down the field with the ball.

There was quite a bit of press about the Knights this year. They earned it. This was a truly fantastic season. Marian was known as a formidable opponent with a strong shooting and rebounding crew.

It was the first season since the return of Chick Linski. (We think that this was what got Michael Jordan thinking.) And with the help of returning forwards Nate Kulakowski, Scott Makielski, and the rest of the gang, they brought opponents to their knees. The season ended with a disappointing loss to Concord in the sectionals. Coach Caldron looks forward to another great season with strong returning players.

Great job Knights!

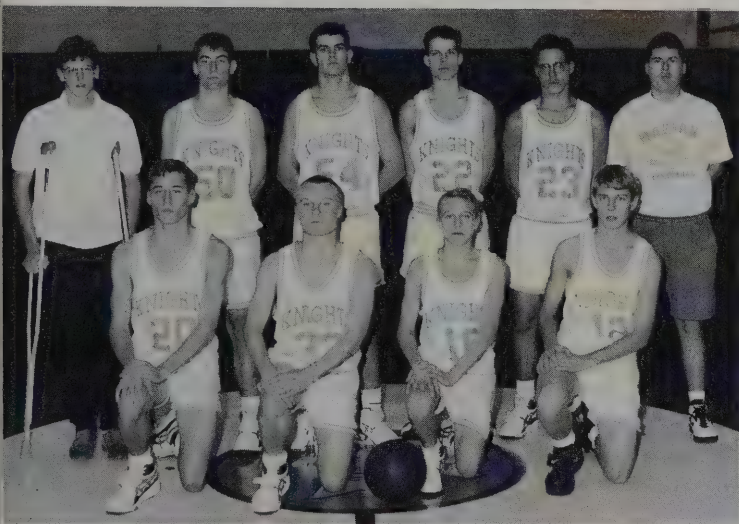

Scott Makielski looks to dish off to one of his well positioned teammates.

Hockey

The referee oversees what could turn out to be a battle.

The Marian hockey team was coached this year by Mr. Kevin Cox and Mr. David Hogan. This year's outstanding captains were Tim Carlson and Justin Vogel.

This year's hockey team gave spectators an entertaining and fun experience at each game. The team's strongest element this year was the leadership of the seniors.

The team also has a very promising future. They are young, with 15 of 19 players in the freshman class. Newcomers include: Nathan Vogel, Dustin Haywood, Robbie Benton and Ryan Foster. Other promising players include juniors Mike Macri, Nicole Paulk and sophomore "Cuban Don McCuban".

The team participated in the First Annual Marian Hockey Invitational, earning second place, the Bloomington Blades Tourney, the city tournament, and they participated in Indianapolis for the state title this season. The Marian Invitational took place at the Notre Dame J.A.C.C. where Marian became victorious over Adams in the first game with a score of 7-1. Later, the team beat Fort Wayne Carroll, 6-0, but lost the championship to New Haven with a score of 6-4.

The goalies for the hockey team this year were Andy Bernacki and Nick Snuffleufagus, respectively from LaPorte and Penn.

Class of 1995

This year's senior class moves forward with four years of experience together. They have shared close friendships, good times, rough times, successes and disappointments. They have shared four homecomings, four last days of school, favorite teachers, and personal jokes. But they also possess a lasting, solid education of which their memories will always be a part. And may you always enjoy your "Memories of Marian."

Memories of Marian

To be a knight in these modern times can be extremely difficult. Chivalry seems to be dead and the chances of beating heavy odds appears to be impossible. As we fight each battle, though, our arsenal becomes larger and larger, as do our opponents. So remember, at that next uncrossable bridge or against that unbeatable dragon let us call on our experiences, especially those gained at Marian. Never forget that here is a battle we have won.
